

I strongly oppose any further consolidation of ownership of newspapers, broadcast, or cable systems. Right now there is far too much concentration of control of national mass media. I am a retired businessman who uses all media forms on a daily basis.